

Vedic Astrology 102

Basic/Intermediate Vedic Astrology

Weekly online sessions from Saturday 3rd June 2023

Vedic Astrology 102

A new one-year program of Vedic astrology, designed to provide a comprehensive understanding of this ancient Indian system of astrology. In this program, we will explore various aspects of Vedic Astrology, including the stories of the signs, mythology of the Nakshatras, using Avasthas and planetary strength, calculating and interpreting planetary periods, retreats on the Navagrahas, and preparing for client sessions.

You will gain a deeper understanding of the 12 Signs of the zodiac and their corresponding stories, and how they shape our personality traits and life experiences. You will also delve into the mythology of the Nakshatras, which are lunar mansions that have their own unique stories and energies. Using Avasthas and planetary strength, you will learn how to assess the strength and weakness of planetary energies in a birth chart, and how to interpret their impact on an individual's life. Additionally, you will gain knowledge on calculating and interpreting planetary periods, which can provide valuable insights into a person's life events and cycles. As part of the program, you will also participate in retreats focused on the Navagrahas, which are the nine planets in Vedic astrology. These retreats will provide you with the opportunity to connect with the planetary energies and explore their impact on your life and the lives of others. Finally, you will learn how to prepare for client sessions, including the importance of ethical considerations and confidentiality, developing communication skills, and conducting effective consultations.
